Fi Laidlaw of Living Cloth is a self taught maker and designer and loves teaching and passing along her love of colour.

Over the years Fi has explored many creative wanderings – spinner, knitter, felt maker, maker and designer of quilts, lover of hexagons, slow stitching and sudden side of the road stops with her kids rolling their eyes as she jumped out to collect leaves for her natural dye pot.

The joy of slow stitch, whether it be a wandering running stitch or a ‘look at me’ bullion stitch is her meditation.

Outside Photos were taken at Noosa Botanical Gardens

All photos in this booklet were taken by Fi’s daughter
Rose @rosehocking

Having picked up an old chair from an Op shop years ago, Fi had always wanted to have a go at reupholstering.

This was the perfect opportunity to have a go and of course it had to involve hexies, her favourites!

She stitched up 2 pieces of fabric for the back and seat of the chair, the glorious floral fabrics were perfect for these large hexies and she fussy cut the peacock hexies for the seat back, then the fun really began.

She had a wonderful experience working with her daughter Rose to create this now beautiful chair.

The blue shirt Fi is wearing is a pattern by McCall's M7751.

Fi adjusted the pattern to make it an over shirt, added pockets and, of course, Hexies!

The long coat Rose is wearing is a pattern by Amy Butler Design called Bella Duster.

Rose is also wearing strings of Hexie Blossom Necklaces made from the Chic Escape fabrics and is a design and pattern created by Fi.

It is available through her Etsy Shop - Living Cloth.
